

THG Geophysics, Ltd., a geophysical and environmental services firm, is seeking a full-time field geologist to assist with geophysical field services projects in our Murrysville, PA office. Entry-level to two years' of related experience.

Candidate Qualifications

- Bachelors in Geology, or related field
- Ability to travel (overnight) up to 65% of the time, when necessary
- Ability to perform physical movements for 8 hours per day
- Ability to frequently lift/move up to 50 lbs.
- Valid driver's license with good driving record
- Able to pass Security Background Checks and Drug Screenings
- Outdoor work in all climates
- Ability to establish effective working relationships with co-workers and manage tasks
- General mechanical and electrical skills are beneficial, not a requirement

Job Responsibilities:

- Perform geophysical surveys using ground penetrating radar, electromagnetics, seismic and electrical resistivity equipment.
- Provide overall crew support activities
- Assist with geophysical mapping
- Completes paperwork
- Maintains vehicles, work sites, and equipment

Featured benefits:

- Medical insurance
- Dental insurance
- 401(k) contribution matching
- Paid Vacation